

Thank you for such a wonderful evening and for all my "goodies". My husband was in full approval of my outfit, hair and makeup. I also tried on the the other dress for him and he really liked it too. Thank you SO much!!!

I have included the invitation to the Mother's Day lunch and I hope you and your Aunt will attend. We will go across the street to the consignment shop afterwards if you have the time. But we will set up a date to do the Old Town Consignments. Just you and me in flat shoes. And one last thing, I need to know the brand of the gold eye shadow. I loved, loved, loved it, when I got home and was able to see it in my own bathroom mirror. Tell me what it is and I will buy it tomorrow.

Thank you again and again.

Big hugs,

Ginger
